DR. W. B. O'BANNON operated on Mrs. Laban Withers for cancer of the breast a few days since. The patient is doing nicely.

COL. W. G. WELCH has been honored again. A boat just launched at Cook's Springs has been named for him. Mr. S. R. Cook tells us.

MRS. JOHN S. BAUGHMAN, of Garrard, who is as strong a democrat as her excellent husband, was the guest of Mrs. J. C. Hays and enjoyed the "Inch Party."

GEORGE D. FLORENCE has gone with the Lancaster team to play ball at Winchester and his brother, Albert B., is holding down his place at the postoffice.

MISS MAGGIE BUCHANAN, of Crab Orchard, will be one of the maids of honor to Miss Clara Haideman, sponsor for the Sons of Confederate Veterans of Kentucky.

ELDER J. D. MONTGOMERY, of Liberty, is here with old friends. He tells us that Sam Hamlin, who killed a painter named Platt, was held in $500, which he has not given.

MESSRS. W. W. LYON AND W. S. DRYE, two Lincoln county traders, were here a few days since. Capt. B. P. Powell, also of Lincoln, is visiting relatives in Adair.—News.

THOMAS DILTON has made one of the handiest reels for Col. Welch we ever saw, but as the colonel hasn't any reputation as a Nimrod, we don't know what he will do with it.

MRS. GEORGE R. GUFFIN, who was here from McKinney yesterday to get some printing done, tells us that her husband is quite sick. Miss Ethel Gooch accompanied Mrs. Guffin.

W. LOGAN WOOD writes us that he has engaged with Fox & Logan, the Danville liverymen, and that he wants his Lincoln county friends to remember him when they come to Little Britan.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

FOR SALE.—Two fresh Jersey cows; good milkers. Box 101, Stanford.

DON'T forget the strawberry supper for the benefit of the Baptist church at Crab Orchard tonight.

ANOTHER good rain fell early yesterday morning and all nature is wearing a gladome smile today.

THE ladies have decorated the stage at the Opera House in honor of Gen. Gordon, who will entertain and delight us tonight.

STORE FOR SALE.—First-class stand; clean, fresh stock. Good run of trade. Satisfactory reasons for selling. See editor of this paper.

JIMMY HALEY held Josh Dye, a nephew of the late noted man of that name, to circuit court for trespass on the lands of Wm. Landgraf.

SALE.—H. A. Pleasants, administrator, will have a sale of the effects of Misses Sidney and Kittie L. Abraham at their late residence June 2d.

THE trustees of the Stanford Male Academy elected Prof. E. L. Groth to teach next session. He will be assisted by his wife, whom he will marry before that time.

"HECKON they will take the case before Queen Victoria now," remarked Mr. Richard Bibb when he heard that the supreme court had decided for Gov. Beckham.

THE rads here were going to have a big time had the supreme court decided against Gov. Beckham, but as it did not, they are sticking in their holes closely and are a pretty sick looking lot.

WE have only 75 cents to report for the Goebel monument fund. It was contributed 25c each, by George H. Dunn, of Hustonville, and David and Miss Fannie Thompson, of the Preachersville section.

THE L. & N. will run a special train from Richmond, June 1st, to the Louisville reunion. It will leave there at 8 A. M., passing Stanford at 7:30 and picking up passengers at intermediate stations, will arrive in Louisville about 10 o'clock.

THE best republicans here are outspoken in their condemnation of Taylor for feeling from the State instead of standing and facing the music, and say they are done with him since he has shown so decided a streak of yellow in his composition.

ONLY one dollar a year, 36 columns a week and set in brief. This makes the INTERIOR JOURNAL the cheapest rural paper in the world. The blank paper it is printed on costs almost as much as the subscription price. Can you afford to not take it?

THE finest strawberries anybody ever saw were left at this office yesterday by Dr. E. M. Estes. They are of the Clyde variety and are as large as a good size apple. As he says he will bring us more, if anybody can beat them, we hope an effort will be made.

WHEN we wrote in the last issue that we were proud of the paper, we meant its contents, not the way the new press printed most of the edition. We hope, however, our troubles are over and that smooth sailing will characterize our craft in the future.

HIGH is a chance to go to soldiering; Lt. A. S. Fleming writes us from Lexington that he is there recruiting for the heavy batteries at Fort Barrancas, Fla., 2d Infantry at Fort Thomas and to add to regiments in the Philippines. Those interested can write or go to see him.

"I see Daws Hughes offers a reward in your paper to anyone who will give a reason why his people should not give the right-of-way to the Southern railroad. I claim it. The reason is the Southern doesn't want it, because it will run its road this way," said Census John Bright to us yesterday.

HEAR grand old Gen. Gordon tell about "The Last Days of the Confederacy," at Walton's Opera House tonight. He will thrill you with his eloquent recital of how the brave boys in the trenches stood the terrible hardships for the cause they loved and make you love and honor their memories more. Seats are going rapidly. Secure one at W. B. McRoberts.

GOING TO DOUBT.—Mr. W. H. Williams, of Hustonville, who was here yesterday, told us that D. M. Lipps & Son, the Hustonville millers, have contracted with a firm to double the capacity of their mill and they will shut down June 1st and work will begin on it. This will give the mill a capacity of 100 barrels per day. Mr. Williams made a little trip to Casey for the above firm and sold 145,500 pounds of flour. The mill has not been equal to the demand since Messrs. Lipps took charge.

AT the risk of being gayed by our brethren of the press, who know that millions of fac simile copies of the U. S. Constitution, N. Y. Gazette, bearing the date of Jan. 4th, 1800, and in mourning for President George Washington, whose death on the 14th of December, 1799, with the ceremonies attending his burial, is told of, we state that we have before us what purports to be a genuine copy of the original edition. It belongs to Miss Bonnie Nabers at the College, who says it has been handed down in her family from her great, great grandfather. It certainly looks that old and is a curiosity in newspaper making even if it was a fac simile.

CEMENT, lime, tiling, &c., at lowest prices at Hill & Beck's.

ICE CHESTS, refrigerators, &c. at Higgins & McKinney's.

SAVE your potatoes by buying bug finish, which kills. W. B. McRoberts.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—My residence and store house, the latter occupied by Penny's Drug Store. J. W. Hayden.

LETTERS from Kingsville, Waynesburg and Monticello were received this morning, but of course we couldn't get them in this issue. Write earlier, dear friends.

A MESSAGE from Lancaster says that Maj. L. M. Drye was elected commander by the G. A. R. and Capt. Wm. Herndon vice commander. Covington will be the next place of meeting.

OF the 35 teachers examined Friday and Saturday last, five got first class, 17 second, four third class certificates and nine failed. The colored teachers' examination began this morning.

A CAMP of Sons of Confederate Veterans will be organized at W. S. Burch's office this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Burch having succeeded in raising the requisite number of charter members.

AT London yesterday, the case against James Howard for killing Geo. Baker in Clay county, was virtually dismissed as a result of an agreement between the Baker and Howard factions. The case against Howard at Frankfort will not be so easily disposed of.

TO POLICE HOLDERS.—Any one holding policies written by me will find me at the old stand with only the best of companies, and will look after them and renew same, as I have done for five years. Pay no attention to what any one may tell you. Thanking you for past favors. Resp't. Jesse D. Wearen.

THE old Dan Jones property, lately known as the Jones place, was sold at auction to M. J. Farris for $3,000, says the Advocate. It contains 19 acres and has upon it a fine old mansion. Mr. Farris got it at a bargain, as it is one of the finest pieces of residence property in the Bluegrass, and, when improved as Mr. Farris is able to and will improve it, will be a veritable garden spot.

ENUMERATORS.—John Bright, supervisor of the census for the 8th district, furnishes us this list of appointments for enumerators for Lincoln county: Stanford Magisterial District: Geo. A. McRoberts, Geo. D. Hopper and Edwin E. Patterson.

Crab Orchard: John W. Cummins and Henry E. Newland.

Waynesburg: Maehle J. Brough and Mark D. Wall.

Hustonville: Andrew J. Adams, John J. Durham and Cleora Reynolds.

IN copying our reference to Thomas M. Owsley's determination to eschew an active participation in politics, the Bowling Green Times, edited by dear old Dr. John D. Woods, says: This is from the pen of Editor Walton, one of the cleverest men in the world and the democratic editor of the model rural newspaper of Kentucky, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, concerning our young townsman, Tom Owsley, himself as clever and clean as men get to be. Walton's lament over the defection of Tom and his departure from the democratic path trod by his long and splendid ancestry, is shared by every good democrat who knows the young gentleman. Tom evidently felt that there was room at the top in republican circles as well as in the professions, but he will find that the top in Kentucky republicanism is so little occupied that he will have a dreary, lonesome time and that he will have a continuous case of nostalgia. We join in with Tom's brother Walton in hoping soon to see him walking into the fatted calf with both hands, backed up by a good appetite, and a cordial welcome home.

THIS Inch party given by the Grigsby Chapter, U. D. C., at the Veranda Hotel, Wednesday evening, proved a source of much pleasure to young and old. Confederate flags and other bunting were gracefully displayed, while pictures of President Davis, Gen. Lee, Jackson, Morgan, Gano and Cols. Grigsby, Napier and others were prominently placed and tastefully arranged. The attendance was good, but the admission in many cases was so small and the expenses so large that the net sum realized for the tablet for gallant Maj. Whaley's grave was not large. The charges were three cents a foot and two cents an inch over even feet, and quite a number being five feet and six feet exactly they got in for 15 and 18 cents respectively. Miss Ella May Saunders, George S. Carpenter, Rowan Sauley and others did the measuring, which occasioned much merriment. Miss Belle Denney collected the funds and nearly all of the "Daughters" assisted in one way and another, in making the guests have a good time. Frappe was served by Misses Sophie Alcorn and Nell Warren and the nice refreshments were served by pretty waiters. Miss Isabella Bailey gave some charming violin selections. Mrs. George L. Penny rendered some appropriate piano music very finely, while the Centre College Quartette, composed of Messrs. Ireland, Mustaine, Raines and Mills, sang a number of songs with highly appreciated effect. Some of the young people danced, little Berta Jean Penny amused with her nimble jigs and every one found some way of enjoying himself. Mrs. Alcorn, president, and the other members of the chapter were well pleased with the result of their first attempt to raise money for the laudable cause and will make another effort shortly.

ROYAL Baking Powder

The strongest, purest, most efficient and wholesome of leavening agents. Not lowest in price, yet the most economical; indispensable to all who appreciate the best and most healthful food.

Our country is enjoying prosperity almost unsurpassed in its history.

For every one there is money enough to buy that to eat which is pure, sound, good, wholesome.

Why should we use cheap, impure, unhealthful articles of food? There is no economy in them; they endanger the health, they may cost life. There are reported almost daily cases of sickness caused by eating cake, puddings or biscuit made with the cheap, alum baking powders.

In all articles for food buy and use only the best. The good health of the family is of first consideration.

Alum is used in many baking powders because it makes them cheap. It costs less than two cents a pound. Alum is a corrosive poison. Think of feeding it to children! Yet the manufacturers of well-known alum powders are actually denying that their goods contain it.
